The pipeline for construction activity in Windhoek remains subdued. A total of 165 buildings plans were approved in February, a 129.2% m/m increase compared to January's figure, translating to an 1.2% y/y decrease. The value of approvals has surged by 251.7% m/m and 158.9% y/y to N$188.2 million, compared to N$53.5 in January and N$72.7 million in February 2023. On average, the applications that were approved had a time lapse of 103 days.

Windhoek saw a 42.0% y/y drop in completed buildings, falling from 50 in February 2023 to 29 in February 2024. The completion of two commercial buildings, valued at N$3.6 million, 11 additions at N$5.0 million, and 16 residential buildings valued at N$13.7 million, equated to the total value of completions of N$2.3 million.

The number of building plan approvals in February exceeded that of to the prior three months, as the chart below indicates. Indeed, the number of applications submitted to the City of Windhoek increased by 52.5% m/m, translating to a 7.9% y/y decline in submissions, due to the month-on-month increase being from a low base. Engagements with stakeholders in the banking space have indicated that demand for loans are high, but affordability is low hindering individuals from obtaining loans.
