International Market Wrap
US stocks fell in volatile trading as mixed economic data kept investors on edge about the timing of stimulus tapering even as the relentless spread of the Covid-19 delta variant undermines global growth. The S&P 500 notched a fourth straight decline after erasing an intraday gain that had brought it to within 0.4% of its all-time high. The dollar weakened and 10-year US Treasury yields declined. European equities fell, with the Stoxx 600 erasing the initial advance it saw after the European Central Bank said it will slow its emergency support but keep policy accommodative. A Hong Kong gauge of Chinese tech names jumped more than 2% in the wake of a clarification by a newspaper that China has slowed rather than frozen new game approvals.

US Continuing Claims fell 22,000 to 2.78m in the week of 28 August, as per the Department of Labour.

US Langer Consumer Comfort Index fell 0.3 points to 57.9 in the week of 5 September, as per Langer Research.

Eurozone ECB kept its monetary policy unchanged on Thursday but opted to slow down the pace of net asset purchases under its pandemic emergency purchase program.

Germany Current Account Surplus narrowed by €5.0bn to €17.6bn in July, as per the German Federal Statistical Office.

Local News

FirstRand Namibia Ltd (FNB) released results for the year ended 30 June 2021 (FY21). Despite operating conditions remaining challenging over the period, the group recorded a 23.9% y/y increase in profit after tax to N$1.03 billion, while headline earning per share increased by 17.8% y/y to 391.2cps. FNB posted an impressive ROE of 19.4% (FY20: 16.0%) and a ROA of 2.3% (FY20: 1.9%). A final dividend of 118cps (+136% y/y) was declared for the period. Total assets contracted by 5.3% y/y to N$43.4 billion, driven mainly by a 33.4% y/y decline in intrabank advances and a 15.8% y/y decrease in investment securities. Gross advances posted moderate growth of 1.08% y/y to N$30.2 billion.

Namibia's exports dropped by almost 50%. According to the country's latest trade statistics from the Namibia Statistics Agency, it stood at N$9.4 billion in June. Meanwhile, the country's import bill stood at N$7.9 billion, a 23.1% decline, further translating to a deficit of N$3.2 billion. The drop in the value of exports is due to at least 41.2% less copper being exported over the review period. According to the trade statistics released yesterday, the widening trade deficit from N$902 million in June 2021 was due to a decline in the exportation of mineral products and fish. Copper declined by N$972 million, precious stones (diamonds) by N$282 million, and fish by N$198 million. Imports saw a decline in copper, petroleum oils, precious stones (diamonds), copper ore and concentrates, and motor vehicles. – The Namibian

Jobless youth outnumber adults two to one. Popular Democratic Movement (PDM) parliamentarian Inna Hengari this week in the National Assembly stated that youth unemployment in Namibia is more than twice than that of adults. Hengari stated there are about 576,000 youth in the domestic labour force, of which 265,770 are unemployed. "By the end of this year, Namibia is expected to reach 50.3% of youth unemployment. More concerning is that the highest qualification of 226,259 of the labour force is the junior secondary certificate, while those with qualifications account for a mere 93,998 in the labour force," Hengari added. – New Era

Redforce threatens legal action against Rundu town council. Debt-collecting company Redforce is threatening legal action against the cash-strapped Rundu town council amid a public fallout between the parties. The threat of a lawsuit is contained in a letter dated 31 August, seen by Namibian Sun, in which Redforce CEO Julius Nyamazana criticised the conduct of the local authority around their three-year deal. The letter, addressed to Rundu CEO Olavi Nathanael, takes aim at the conduct of office-bearers whose public statements are allegedly putting Redforce's reputation at risk. Nyamazana stressed that their behaviour will impact the debt collector's work to recover over N$450 million from defaulters. Sources privy to the council's dealings claimed that by Wednesday morning it had less than N$150,000 in its bank account. – Namibian Sun

Veld fires destroy nearly 600,000 ha. Over 580,480 hectares have been burnt as the country continues to witness some devastating fires threatening lives, property, a degradation of the natural environment as well as the destruction of crops, livestock and game across Namibia. From May to September 2021, 99 veld fires occurred in Omusati covering 11,554 hectares, Khomas: 75,000 ha, Oshikoto: 18,900 ha, Zambezi: 80,420 ha, Kunene: 100,167 ha, Kavango East: 40,000 ha, Kavango West: 45,500 ha, Omaheke: 30,764 ha, Otjozondjupa: 85,891 ha and Hardap covering 20,284 ha. In Omusati, an unspecified number of goats and sheep burnt to death, while cattle posts were destroyed. In Khomas, many farms burnt, leaving 491 livestock and game killed. One person died, and others were severely injured. These figures were announced by environment and tourism minister Pohamba Shifeta on Wednesday in the National Assembly when he gave an update on Namibia's devastating fire season which started in May, as is the case almost every year. – New Era

SA Economic News

South Africa's current-account surplus for the second quarter missed estimates even as it widened to a record amid improving economic activity and growing exports following the easing of restrictions to curb the spread of Covid-19. The balance on the current account, the broadest measure of trade in goods and services, widened to an annualized surplus of 5.6% of gross domestic product, or R342.8 billion from a revised 4.3% positive balance in the previous quarter, the South African Reserve Bank said in a report on Thursday. While that's the largest quarterly current-account surplus on record, it's still less than the 6.7% median estimate of 13 economists in a Bloomberg survey.

Company News

Sanlam paid approximately R10 billion in gross mortality claims in the first six months of 2021, the highest ever in a six-month period. Despite the negative effects of the pandemic on Sanlam's underwriting results, disruptions in operations and low consumer confidence, the group announced that activities are very close to the normal levels of 2019. Operating earnings increased by 33% to R4.68 billion in the six months to end June 2021 compared to R3.5 billion in the first half of 2020, based on a strong recovery in new business volumes. New business volumes increased 12% over the same period a year ago, with CEO Paul Hanratty noting that it is 57% better than in 2019. He indicates that the higher savings rates relate to the pandemic – in that lockdown prevented people from spending money – while a new understanding of the need for saving and insurance among its customers benefitted sales of policies. – Moneyweb

Investec and Investec have been approved for secondary listings on A2X Markets, making it the second major bank to list on the alternative South African stock exchange. The group's shares will commence trading by the end of next week, A2X and Investec confirmed in a statement on Thursday. Investec and Investec plc will retain their existing listings on local and international stock exchanges and their respective share capitals will not be affected by the secondary listing. These recent listings follow the listings of the Investec Top 40 Tri ETN and the Investec Swix op 40 TRI ETN in October 2019. – Moneyweb

Prosus, which houses Naspers's global internet business, including a nearly one-third stake in Tencent, had its worst day in more than a month on Thursday after reports that Chinese regulators are stepping up efforts to limit online gaming. The South China Morning Post, citing unidentified people, reported that regulators told Chinese tech firms that approval of new games is to be suspended. This was during a meeting at which their focus on profit was questioned. – Business Day

The global shift towards green energy has ignited an appetite for uranium production in Sibanye-Stillwater, with the company exploring opportunities in the resource which it says has long been unloved. Sibanye is no stranger to uranium production. It shipped its first uranium oxide in 2014 from its Ezulwini plant. Speaking to investors on Thursday, CEO Neal Froneman, stated the growing commitment to nuclear energy especially in the Asia Pacific region, including its appeal as a green energy resource. Froneman said Sibanye had "significant uranium resources" at its Beatrix West and Cooke Tailings, as well as processing infrastructure. – Fin24

SADC

State Secretary for Petroleum and Gas Jose Barroso said Thursday that the country aims to keep production above 1.1 million barrels a day in the coming years. As ambitions go it's a very modest one: in 2007, when Angola joined the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries, it was pursuing a production target of 2 million barrels a day. It highlights a schism within OPEC+, the alliance of global producers who are meant to be boosting their collective production: some nations can – others are struggling. Angola has the right, under the terms of the pact, to pump 1.33 million barrels a day in September, increasing to 1.45 million barrels by April. Instead, production has been going in the opposite direction, drifting lower even as its OPEC+ target has been rising.

Namibia Covid-19 Situation

Namibia recorded 69 new cases, as well as 5 deaths on Wednesday the 8th of September. To date, the country had a total of 126,121 cases, with 1,490 active cases and 3,422 deaths. 162 patients are currently hospitalised, of which 19 are in ICU. A total of 225,359 Namibians have received at least one vaccination, of which 133,237 Namibians have been fully vaccinated.
