Local News

NAC calls for revival of national airline. The Namibia Airports Company (NAC) has called for the establishment of a new sustainable national airline. This follows the collapse of Air Namibia early last year due to mounting debt and general mismanagement. The company consistently failed to produce financial statements in recent years despite regular state bailouts over the past two decades. Addressing the Namibia Aviation and Connectivity Forum, which was launched Thursday, NAC chairperson Leake Hangala said the platform should consider how the country can resurrect a national airline that is financially viable, operationally efficient, and contributes to domestic and regional competition. – The Brief

South African farmers want Namibia, Botswana to reopen for fruit and veg. South African farmers are urging for Namibia and Botswana to reopen their borders to allow the importation of fruits and vegetables. The two countries have prohibited the importation of several types of fruits and vegetables in an attempt to protect local producers. South African agricultural body AgriSA, which represents the majority of farmers, says these bans are against existing trade agreements. News24 yesterday reported that Botswana has blocked South African exports of tomatoes, carrots, beetroot, potatoes, cabbage, lettuce, garlic, onions, ginger, turmeric, chilli peppers, butternut, watermelons, sweet peppers, green mealies and fresh herbs since the beginning of this year. Some of these vegetables have been blocked by Namibia too. – The Namibian

63% of imported goods undervalued, misclassified and undeclared. The commissioner of the Namibia Revenue Agency (NamRa), Sam Shivute, said 63% of imported goods from other countries for trading purposes are undervalued, misclassified and not declared, which is causing the state to lose a lot of money. "You get a consignment of N$10 million, which is declared for N$1 million. We received news today from our container control unit that one of the consignments that were full of jeans was declared for 20 cents for each item. "Some people, for instance, try to bring in phones, but the parts are separated and brought in through different entry points in the country. "Importers do whatever they can to avoid paying. The state loses the rest of the money. It cannot continue like this," he said. – The Namibian

Kazera to ramp up tantalum, lithium production after getting N$8.4m from Chinese investor. Kazera Global, which owns Tantalite Valley Mine in Namibia, says it is ready to increase production of tantalum and lithium after it received N$8.4 million from Chinese company Hebei Xinjian Construction. According to a deal announced in July, Kazera will receive a total of N$125.3 million investment from Hebei in return for a 49% stake in its marketing, sales and export subsidiary African Tantalum for all lithium production from its wholly owned mine at Tantalite Valley, in Namibia. The investment will consist of a mixture of cash, machinery and services, with a minimum of N$41.8 million payable to Kazera in cash. – The Brief

Resignations rock TransNamib board. Both TransNamib board chairperson Lionel Matthews and board member Sigrid Tjijorokisa tendered their resignations from the board yesterday, citing irreconcilable differences on the course of action regarding alleged irregularities at the company and, according to Matthews "a continued demand to remove the current CEO and some executives". – Namibian Sun

SA Economic News

South African Town Councils Owed Eskom US$2.9 Billion by End-July. South African municipalities' debt to state-owned power utility Eskom Holdings SOC Ltd. rose almost 10% since March to 49.1 billion Rand (US$2.9 billion) by the end of July, Deputy President David Mabuza said. "This is not a desirable state of affairs for both Eskom and municipalities," Mabuza told lawmakers in a briefing on Thursday.

Company News

Invest lists emerging Asian markets ETF on the JSE. Invest, a specialist provider of index-tracking investment solutions, has listed a new exchange-traded fund (ETF) on the JSE, which aims to give SA investors exposure to eight rapidly growing emerging markets in Asia. The Invest MSCI Emerging Markets Asia Index Feeder ETF began trading on the JSE on Thursday, providing direct rand-denominated exposure to companies in some of Asia's most dynamic and fast-growing emerging markets. – Business Day

Adcock flags profit growth as colds and flu return. Adcock Ingram, which counts Panado painkillers and the cold and flu product Coreza C among its products, has flagged profit growth of at least a fifth in its year to end-June, benefiting from improved demand for over-the-counter products. Headline earnings per share (HEPS) are expected to increase by 23.5%-24% to as much as 502c to end-June, the firm said in a brief trading update, with earnings per share expected to rise by between 24%-25%. – Business Day

Curro expects bump in interim profits. Curro Holdings is expecting a bump in profit when it releases interim results next month, but it comes off the back of a low base in headline earnings per share (HEPS) last year. The private-education company said on Tuesday it expects HEPS to increase 33.5%-50% to 25.9c-29.1c, but this is lower than two years ago after the Covid-19 pandemic disrupted schooling and caused a downturn in the world economy as lockdowns forced most to work and study from home. – Business Day

Exxaro's earnings climb more than a fifth, despite iron and rail hit. Exxaro, one of Eskom's largest coal sources, says record coal prices helped headline earnings climb more than a fifth in its half year to end-June, despite a rail-induced slump in export volumes, as well as lower earnings from its iron ore interests. Group revenue rose 48% to R22.3bn to end-June as the miner cashed in on record coal prices, with headline earnings up 22% to R8.29bn, boosted as export prices for its coal more than tripled to $262 a tonne. – Business Day

Exxaro halves its renewables investment target. Exxaro, one of Eskom's largest coal suppliers, said on Thursday that its pace of investment in renewable energy may not be as rapid as initially thought. The company announced ambitious plans last year to diversify away from being a coal-only business as it strives to achieve a target of net-zero carbon emissions by 2050. – Business Day

Grindrod sees bonanza from minerals and interest rates. Freight and financial services group Grindrod says strong mineral commodity markets and higher interest rates could see interim earnings surging by more than half. Core headline earnings, which include its main port and terminals, logistics, and banking businesses, are expected to increase by between 49% and 58% to between R514m and R544m in the six months to end-June, the Durban-based firm said in a statement on Thursday. – Business Day

Letshego low-cost housing scheme to benefit Namibians. Pan-African Finance Group Letshego has launched a low-cost housing scheme for Namibia and Botswana with plans to roll it out to other African countries. The "Affordable Housing" scheme comes barely two weeks after Letshego Namibia struck a financing deal with Ongos Valley for low-cost houses. In September last year, the Botswana-based bank which has interests in 11 African countries received a US$50 million loan from the International Finance Corporation for constructing up to 4,000 affordable houses in Namibia. – The Brief

Thungela reaches terms with Transnet amid rail dysfunction. Coal miner Thungela Resources, which recently cut its guidance due to rail woes, says it has reached terms with Transnet that commits the rail operator to haul a minimum of 60-million tonnes for its year to end-March 2023. Transnet hauled 58.3-million tonnes of export coal in its 2022 financial year, 20% less than its target, and problems on its network has meant SA's coal miners have been missing out in part as prices boom in the wake of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. – Business Day

SADC

Angola plans to reduce crude exports in October to 1.02m b/d, the lowest level since July 2021.

Zimbabwean mine workers received a 78% salary increase following an agreement reached between employers and union officials that covers the period from July through December.
