Local News

Paladin targets 5.6m pounds uranium production from Langer Heinrich. Paladin Energy Ltd has forecast uranium production of between 5.1 million and 5.6 million pounds (Mlb) of uranium oxide (U_3O_8) from its Langer Heinrich Mine (LHM) in the Erongo Region during the 2027 financial year, following the successful completion of the mine's operational ramp-up. The mine is one of the world's significant uranium projects and resumed commercial production in 2024 after being placed on care and maintenance in 2018 due to weak uranium prices. – Windhoek Observer

Reliance on credit and borrowing increased to 49% in 2025. Namibians' reliance on credit and borrowing has increased significantly, with nearly half of adults reporting that they borrowed money in 2025, mainly to meet essential household needs such as food, education and transport, according to the latest Namibia Financial Inclusion Survey (NFIS). NSA statistician-general and chief executive officer Alex Shimuafeni said the survey provides critical evidence to guide policy decisions, support financial sector innovation and strengthen interventions aimed at improving access to financial services for all Namibians. The 2025 NFIS, released by the Namibia Statistics Agency (NSA) on Wednesday, found that the proportion of adults who borrowed money increased to 49.0% in 2025, up from 42.1% in 2017, highlighting growing demand for credit among households. According to the survey, borrowing was largely driven by day-to-day financial pressures, with 51.3% of borrowers using funds for food, followed by education (22.1%) and transport expenses (16.4%). – Windhoek Observer

Banking sector assets increased by 3.8% to N$195.1 billion in Q1. The banking sector remained well capitalised, profitable and liquid during the first quarter of 2026, with notable improvement in asset quality, the Macroprudential Oversight Committee (MOC) of the Bank of Namibia has stated. Total banking sector assets increased by 3.8% to N$195.1 billion, driven mainly by growth in net loans and advances, supported by higher holdings of short-term negotiable securities. The central bank said although profitability remained strong, the return on assets declined from 2.8% to 2.3%, while the return on equity decreased from 21.8% to 18.1% during the first quarter of 2026, mainly reflecting lower net interest and net trading income. Credit risk continued to improve, with the non-performing loan ratio declining from 4.3 percent in the fourth quarter of 2025 to 4.2% in the first quarter of 2026, largely owing to write-offs and recoveries in the mortgage loan portfolio. "Similarly, liquidity remained adequate, with both the liquidity coverage ratio and net stable funding ratio improving further while remaining comfortably above the minimum regulatory requirements. – Windhoek Observer

SA Economic News

Inflation spikes to 5% in June, all but cementing case for rate hike. Consumer inflation accelerated to 5% year-on-year in June from 4.5% in May, data showed on Wednesday, all but sealing the case for another interest rate hike when the South African Reserve Bank (Sarb) concludes its monetary policy meeting on Thursday. The main contributor to the annual inflation rate was transport, which came in at 12.7% and contributed 1.7 percentage points to the headline number, Statistics South Africa said. Annual inflation for housing and utilities and insurance and financial services was also up significantly. On a month-on-month basis, prices were up 0.7% in June compared with May. The June print marks the second straight month of inflation coming in above the 2% to 4% tolerance band of the Bank's 3% target adopted last year. – Business Day

Pepkor creates R21.3bn fintech platform with IPO ambitions. JSE-listed retail group Pepkor Holdings Limited has announced a major consolidation in South Africa's informal merchant sector, combining its Flash business with fintech provider Shop2Shop to establish a preeminent merchant commerce and fintech platform valued at approximately R21.3 billion. The merged entity provisionally designated as "FintechCo" will process an aggregate annual throughput value exceeding R200 billion across both formal and informal economic markets. Under the terms of the agreement, Pepkor will acquire a 57.1% controlling stake in FintechCo through a dual transaction: - Moneyweb

Reinet's NAV dips slightly as it buys back shares. Johann Rupert's investment company Reinet's net asset value (NAV) declined by C6m in the quarter to end-June as the company repurchased shares as part of its buyback programme. The investment company said on Wednesday its net asset value of €6.6bn at the end of June was 0.1% lower than the previous quarter. Net asset value per share was €36.39 compared with €36.31 at the end of March. The group said offsetting these decreases are increases in the estimated fair value and gains realised on some of its listed investments, including TruArc Partners, Coatue funds and Prescient China funds. Reinet records its assets and liabilities in euro and the impact of the strengthening of sterling and the dollar against the euro during the quarter is included in the decrease of the NAV. - Business Day

Chinese firm wins US$2.7 billion deal to build railway in Tanzania. China Civil Engineering Construction Corp. has won a contract to build a US$2.7 billion railway project that's part of a network that will connect the East African nation to some of its landlocked neighbours. The 506 kilometre standard gauge railway will link Tabora and Kigoma regions. Tanzania wants to link its main port of Dar es Salaam by rail to Burundi, Democratic Republic of Congo and Zambia.

Congo presses ahead with local ownership rule for miners despite industry concerns. Democratic Republic of Congo will begin enforcing a long-delayed requirement for mining companies to offer local ownership stakes from July 31, the mines ministry said, despite concerns from some of the world's biggest copper and cobalt miners over its impact on the sector. Reuters previously reported that miners in Congo, the world's top cobalt producer and second-largest copper producer, were seeking to delay enforcement of a 2018 law requiring companies to transfer 10% of their equity to Congolese nationals, including 5% for employees. No miner has yet complied, citing unresolved questions over implementation. – Mining Weekly
