International Market Wrap

A rout in big tech weighed heavily on stocks, with gains in the broader market sputtering as a report showed Americans grew more downbeat about prospects for the economy. Traders got another reality check after a worrisome reading on consumer confidence. A gauge of expectations - which reflects a six-month outlook - tumbled to an almost decade low. The bleak figures come at a time when analysts remain bullish about corporate earnings, with net-margin estimates for S&P 500 companies at a record high. Stocks dropped in Asia on Wednesday on renewed worries about a gloomy economic outlook as monetary policy tightens in much of the world to fight high inflation.

Local News

IGawaxab collaborating with African central banks. The governor of the Bank of Namibia (BoN), Johannes !Gawaxab, met with his counterparts on the continent last week as part of his efforts to strengthen collaboration and seek mutually beneficial relationships among African central banks. Separate meetings were held between the governor of the Bank of Ghana, Dr Ernest Addison, and the Governor of the Bank of Botswana, Moses Dinekere Pelaelo, to strengthen ties. The Bank also intends to call on the Central Bank of Kenya, given the advances made in the fintech space. The courtesy visits extended collaboration efforts while discussing key price and financial stability issues and economic developments such as inflationary challenges in African economies because of the Russia-Ukraine conflict, potential recession in advanced economies, and supply chain disruptions, and the responses to date based on each country's peculiar circumstances. Furthermore, issues of rising debt levels featured prominently as well as efforts to tackle the challenge. – Namibian Sun

Government probes inflating of borehole drilling prices. The Government has launched an internal investigation on the Drought Relief drilling project in all 14 regions for 2019/2020, amid allegations that contractors inflated prices. A team made up of officials from the Ministry of Agriculture, Water and Land Reform (MAWLR), the Prime Minister's Office (OPM), and the Ministry of Finance (MOF) will dig deeper into the matter to determine if the government was indeed overcharged. Agriculture Minister Calle Schlettwein confirmed the investigations to The Brief, saying the probe began in the middle of last year and is still ongoing. "The report on the investigation into borehole pricing is not yet finalised. The team is going from region to region and have not yet covered all. Once finalised we could share it, but unfortunately not yet now," he said. – The Brief

Massive biomass project to boost Otjiwarongo's economy. The mooted multi-million-dollar Biomass Industrial Park project is expected to boost Otjiwarongo's economy through the creation of 300 jobs, while unlocking business markets for locals. Information shared show that the project, to be operated on a 100-hectare piece of land, will produce annual outputs of 191,500 tonnes of wood chips, 20,000 tonnes charcoal, 12,000 tonnes char briquettes, 160 tonnes animal feed, 4,500 tonnes bio-fuel and 600 tonnes biochar tonnes respectively. The final products are to be exported to Germany as the European country seeks to phase out coal power production. – The Brief

ACC needs more money to do their job. The ACC say they lack the resources necessary to produce the outcomes expected of the corruption watchdog. The Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC) is at the bottom of the receiving end when it comes to national budget allocations, ACC deputy director general Erna van Der Merwe told Erongo 24/7 at a media event in Swakopmund last week. She said the fact remains that the public expects the corruption watchdog to be in a position to deliver results. "Without adequate funding, it is virtually impossible to be successful in what is expected from us. So, we need adequate resources to make this a possibility," she said. Van der Merwe cited the limitations that a lack of resources is placing on the transnational Fishrot investigation as an example. – Namibian Sun

SA Economic News

Total employment increases, but SA has fewer full-time jobs. SA's total employment increased on both a quarterly and annual basis, though there is concern that full-time jobs have declined while part-time jobs are on the increase. Stats SA said on Tuesday that employment increased by 42,000 jobs, or 0.4%, from 10,062,000 in December 2021 to 10,104,000 in March 2022, bringing the total number of employed people to about 10.1 million. – Business Day

SA first quarter FDI inflows increase, says Reserve Bank. Foreign direct inflows (FDI) in SA increased in the first quarter of 2022, the SA Reserve Bank said on Tuesday. In its quarterly bulletin on Tuesday, the Bank said SA recorded FDI inflows of R27.2bn in the first quarter of 2022 up from R22.7bn in the fourth quarter of 2021. – Business Day

Company News

Johan Maass appointed Capricorn Group CFO. The Capricorn Group has appointed Johan Maass as the new Group Chief Financial Officer. "Capricorn Group Limited would like to inform shareholders that the recruitment process for Group Chief Financial Officer (Group CFO) has been successfully concluded and that all the required regulatory approvals have been obtained." Maass, who is the current Group Financial Manager, replaces Johannes Jacobus Esterhuysen who resigned from the Group in February. – The Brief

Grindrod flags buoyant volumes amid flooding. Freight and financial services group Grindrod has flagged a doubling of a profit for the first half of its 2022 year, with disruptive weather, including floods in KwaZulu-Natal, failing to derail healthy volume and profit growth. The Durban-based company, which owns ports, terminals and tankers, said in a pre-close update on Tuesday that port volumes grew a "commendable" 26% in the five months to end-May, while volumes from its drybulk terminals jumped 47%. – Business Day

Implats and Amcu sign five-year wage deal that 'ensures stability of operations'. Impala Platinum (Implats), one of the world's leading producers of platinum group metals (PGMs), said on Tuesday it had signed a five-year pay hike deal with the Association of Mineworkers and Construction (Amcu) which will see workers getting inflation-beating increases over the multi-term agreement. Implats, which spent R18.8bn in wages and benefits and paid R19.1bn in taxes and royalties in 2021, said the settlement is effective from 1 July. The group, which employs more than 50,000 people across its operations, becomes the second miner to ink a wage agreement that promotes labour stability by allowing parties to find common ground without declaring a dispute or embarking on a strike. – Business Day

Motus secures ESG funding facilities worth R6.8bn. JSE-listed automotive company Motus Holdings confirmed on Tuesday that it has secured an environmental, social and governance (ESG) funding facility worth R6 billion from Standard Bank South Africa, together with a working capital facility of R800 million. "This ground-breaking ZAR-denominated ESG facility will enable the next phase of Motus' ESG journey. It will focus on the fuel used by group vehicles, water and electricity consumption, as well as gender equality to drive diversity and inclusion," the group said. – Moneyweb

Old Mutual's Tunga Fund develops 811 affordable housing units. Old Mutual's Tunga Real Estate Fund has provided funding towards the development of over 810 low-cost houses around the country in the past six months. This comes as it announced on Tuesday that it was funding the development of an initial 224 serviced erven and affordable houses in Mariental, with a further sub-division currently underway, which will produce 105 additional plots. Currently 307 houses are being developed in Kaisosi, Rundu and 180 units in KwaNkomo housing project in Kuisebmond, Walvis Bay by the unlisted investment manager. – The Brief

Sun International nears pre-pandemic performance. Sun International in a business update released on Tuesday says its revenue for the five months to 31 May 2022 increased by 34% to R4.28 billion from the same period in 2021. The JSE-listed gaming and hotel group said the latest figures are a sign that the business is edging closer to pre-Covid-19 pandemic levels, with South African income in the current period representing approximately 92% of income achieved during the same period in 2019. – Moneyweb

Talks underway to explore how to keep Tiger Brands canning factory open. Talks are underway between authorities and Tiger Brands to look at ways to keep the Langeberg & Ashton Foods facility open, the Western Cape government said in an emailed statement on Tuesday. Tiger Brands's plans to close a fruit and canning operation in the Western Cape may result in the loss of more than 4,000 jobs, the region's government said. – Moneyweb

SADC

The monetary policy committee of the Central Bank of Seychelles maintained the benchmark interest rate at 2% to underpin the economy's recovery from the pandemic and Russia's invasion of Ukraine, Governor Caroline Abel told reporters in the capital, Victoria.
